

Genesee Valley Citizens for Peace

is celebrating its 45th Anniversary

of working actively for a world of peace, justice & freedom.
Please celebrate with us by joining us for the International Day of Peace

Thursday, Sept. 21st, 4 pm

St. Michael's Episcopal Church, 23 Main St., Geneseo

This is a family-friendly event, which will include music, collaborative games, and a keynote speech by Kevin Martin, President of Peace Action.

We will present GVCP's Genesee Valley Peacemaker Award to Kate Alexander, Director of Policy and Outreach for Peace Action New York State

At 5:15 pm, we will walk to SUNY Geneseo's campus, where we will join our sister group, Geneseo Peace Action, and participate in their International Day of Peace event.
