1441 East Avenue, Rochester, NY

“Miko Peled shines a light on one of the most egregious cases of injustice committed to date against Muslim leaders in the United States. ...an ominous and important warning about the degradation of the rule of law and civil liberties that increasingly characterizes American society.” Chris Hedges, Pulitzer prize-winning journalist and former Middle East Bureau Chief for The New York Times

Miko Peled is a writer and activist born and raised in Jerusalem. He is the author of the acclaimed memoir The General's Son, Journey of an Israeli in Palestine. Born into a prominent Zionist family in Jerusalem, Peled emerged as a strong and outspoken advocate of justice and equality in Palestine. He currently speaks around the United States and internationally on the issue of Palestine/Israel.
